

The oldest tennis court in England was built for Henry VIII at Hampton Court palace in 1530.

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

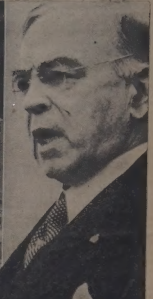

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

CANADIAN CARTOONIST, JIMMIE FRISE, DIES—James Frise is dead, and with the genial cartoonist died a host of characters who had been loved and laughed at by thousands in both Canada and the U.S. Best known to everybody as Juggie, he was the man who created the characters in "Birthdays Center". Above, as an avid debater, he studies a critic. A country boy who never quite became an urbanite, Mr. Frise, never lighting his pipe, found scope in many Canadian publications. In recent years his drawings were bought for U.S. distribution. He portrayed rural Canada in his sparkling and humorous cartoons. "The exact location of the village he portrayed was never 'pinned down'." "It's any Canadian village," Mr. Frise used to say.

PRIME MINISTER KING OFFICIALLY OPENS NEW MILITARY HOSPITAL—Led by U.S. authorities at the front veterans' hospital on the North American continent, if not in the world, Sunnybrook is shown in this general view. "What could better express the gratitude and obligation felt by Canadians toward those veterans of two great wars," said Mr. King, when addressing the crowd at opening ceremonies, Mr. King said nations were advancing either toward world brotherhood or annihilation.

SEARCH ALL NIGHT, FIND GIRL, TWO LOST 18 HOURS IN RUSH—One of 500 searchers, Gordon MacKenzie, Ennals, Ont., farmer, found two-year-old Joan Hirt under tree in bush. Child had been missing for 18 hours. Monique Hirt, scratches and hunger were only ill effects suffered by Joan, who, followed by her frantic parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hart. Volunteers scoured bush near Huntville, Ont., all through the night.

ROY L. IN CANAL SAVED ON BIRTHDAY—His 12th birthday was a memorable one for William Coleman, of Peterboro, Ont. He fell into the Trent canal and was rescued by D'Arcy Hill. The boy was revived by artificial respiration. His body went to the bottom of the canal.

CHARGE DOUBLE MURDER IN TRIANGLE SHOOTING—Beth Linton, 42-year-old Charlottetown, Ont., wife-driber whose wife killed their two children and suicided by shooting five years ago, is behind the faces of Norfolk, Ont., county jail, charged with murdering two men with an automatic rifle, in a triangle tragedy. Victims of the double-slaying are Lewis Stewart, 42, and his brother-in-law, John Kipp, 30. They are husband and brother of 20-year-old Keith Stewart, who had been Linton's housekeeper at the accused man's farmstead cottage, a mile west of Simcoe, Ont. Mrs. Stewart and her 13-year-old daughter, Joan, witnessed the slayings that followed attempts by Kipp and Stewart to take her belongings from Linton's house for an attempted reconciliation with her husband. Women over whom the row is said to have started in Stewart's side, seen here with daughter Joan, 13, and Provincial Constable Parmenter, with Linton of Simcoe, Ont., (right top), charged with murdering the two men, claimed that he did it "in self-defense." The slain men are John Kipp, (left), and Lewis Stewart, his brother-in-law, pictured above.

CLAIMS "BIG DAIRIES ARE CLEANING UP"—Established by department of veterans affairs on dairy farm near Stouffville, Ont., Archie Nesbitt and Duffin were both said to abandon whole milk production because, he says, "the dairies are cleaning up". Here, couple give son Donald ride on calf.

CLEANS UP TELLING HOW TO CLEAN UP—Margaret Duffin, of 1000, a board of directors secretary, says she "knows" housecleaning better than any one else. She says, "I'm a soap center for giving out lectures" who learned was used in spring cleaning.

SPLENDOR IN GREECE AS ROMANIA'S EX-LINGUIST WEDS—Former King Michael of Romania and his bride, Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma, (centre), stand with members of the Royal Family of Greece and Queen Mother Helen of Romania after the colorful marriage in the royal palace at Athens. Michael and Anna were married in the throne room of the palace in a Greek orthodox ceremony. A huge crowd cheered the newlyweds as they left.

AIR-SPEED FASHION SHOW TOURS CANADA—Lined up on the steps to the doorway of a North Star airplane are new models taking part in the air-speed fashion show as they were about to be flown across Canada from Montreal to Vancouver.

CRAZED ANIMALS IN STREETS AFTER TRAIN WRECK—A head-on collision between two freight trains in Toronto, Ont., killed C.N.R. brakeman Norman Yarrow, 27, injured three other members of the train crew, and made a shambles of four cars of livestock, killing 20 animals. A bull escaping from one of the shattered cars attacked Mrs. Edward Powell, sending her to hospital. Injured two boys down a railway embankment, and two lemons before police shot it between the eyes with a blast from a shotgun. Here a squealing pig is grabbed by the ears and held by four trainmen after a short-lived escape from the wrecked box-car. This one was captured in the wreckage but others gave merry chase.

